Help For Veterans, First Responders And Their Families

Help For Veterans, First Responders And Veteran's Families
February 28, 2023 - The links below are offered in the hope of uniting needy servicemen and women, first responders and their families, with support organizations. If you know of other sites that have been, or could be, useful to our Veterans and/or their loved ones, please send nominations to: Staff@WarZoneWear.com.

Veterans Welcome Home & Resource Center – The mission of the Veterans Welcome Home and Resource Center is to end homelessness. We assist our local honorably discharged veterans with job placement, filing claims with the Veterans Administration, help those veterans who find themselves in deep financial difficulty, and to temporarily shelter those veterans who are homeless until permanent housing can be secured. War Zone Wear, LLC is a proud contributor to this worthy 501(C)3 organization.

KnowYourDNA – It's no secret that drug addiction is hereditary. If a family member struggles with addiction, it puts you at greater risk than someone who doesn't have an addiction in the family. The risk is higher if it's a first-degree relative who is addicted. Parents, children, and siblings are some examples. Of course, having a higher risk doesn't guarantee that you will become addicted. They're choices, health, and environment are what determine the likelihood of addictive. Genetic tests can analyze your DNA and identify your risk for substance use disorders like alcoholism and opiate addiction.

ReCreate.Life Counseling – Offers a variety of drug and alcohol treatment options in Florida.

Trajector Medical. – In an outstanding organization that assists Veterans in getting the most accurate Veteran Disability Rating that your conditions/ warrant. We at War Zone Wear, LLC have seen them personally and recommend them highly.

Medicare.Plans.Resource – Medicare is a federal program that provides health coverage for older adults and some younger adults with disabilities. If you have VA benefits due to your military service, you may be wondering if it's worth signing up for Medicare when you already have access to care at VA facilities. As many veterans, Medicare offers an extra level of protection against high out-of-pocket medical costs. Medicare coverage can also give you more flexibility when choosing doctors and hospitals that provide your care.

Best Online Military-Friendly Colleges of 2022 – A college degree helps active military members and veterans prepare for and transition to civilian life. It's vital that active-duty military members and veterans are able to find a school that can accommodate their needs and is compatible with their long-term career goals. In an effort to support military members in their pursuit of quality college education, Intelligence.com created a guide to the best military-friendly colleges.

Veterans Business – Is dedicated to supporting Veterans who want to open their own business. As veterans, many of the skills you learned in the military can be especially helpful in running a business. The wide range of hard and soft skills you acquired through service can be transferred with great success to the private sector. Many veterans go on to start successful businesses.

PipeVeteran.org – War Zone Wear, LLC just donated to USMC LTC Stuchell's legal defense fund. This true Patriot who simply asked for accountability from the Nation's military leaders. He is being held in solitary, pre-trial, confinement, as yet uncharged, for asking a simple question in the wake of a disastrous exit from Afghanistan that has lead to the death of 13 US fellow service members. He resigned his commission, and walked away from 17 years of service to our Republic. Not satisfied with that sacrifice, the Marine Corps now wants more. Please consider contributing a donation to support this Patriot's defense.

Stop.Soldier.Suicide – After losing friends and fellow service members to suicide, Army veterans, Brian Kinsella, Nick Black, and Craig Grisbeck were determined to create a solution for their fellow veterans who were struggling. For them, military suicide isn't just a problem. It's personal.

WarZoneWear.com is a proud contributor to Stop Soldier Suicide. We urge you to consider doing so as well.

Night.Terrors.In.Adults – Night terrors are recurring nighttime episodes that happen while you're asleep. They're also commonly known as sleep terrors. This very informative page is provided by Healthline.com and can be useful to Veterans, First Responders and other adults.

ProjectZhyrnaha.org – The Mission — Named Dyrnaha II in reference to the evacuation of Dunkirk by Allied forces during World War II with the help of thousands of civilian watercraft — will gather evacuees in four provinces outside Kabul and airlift them to safety, said Jen Wilson, chief operating officer of Army Small Business Association and a member of the coalition.

The coalition is mobilizing today and plans to fly out its first evacuees immediately, she said. For anyone left behind when local nationals are no longer allowed to leave the country after Aug. 26., she said, the future looks grim WarZoneWear.com is a proud contributor to OperationDynamo.org. Please consider doing so as well! The situation is more desperate by the day. Twelve U.S. Marines died today, along with at least thirteen Afghan citizens. The number of injured outside the Kabul Airport is unknown following two suicide bombers' attacks.

On this Memorial Day weekend, we wanted to alert you to an organization honoring Gold Star Families. The Marshall, Woody Williams Medal of Honor Foundation builds monuments to Gold Star Families across the United States. You can view a list of current and in-progress monuments on their website. Hershel Williams is the last surviving Medal Of Honor recipient from WWII. WarZone Wear, LLC is a proud contributor to the Williams Foundation. Please consider doing so as well.

Florida Drug and Alcohol Addiction Treatment – Taking the first step towards a life in recovery is often very difficult. Even with the support of friends and family, it can still feel like a steep climb to the summit. A great way to build your strength is understanding that you are not alone in your struggle and that there are plenty of recovery options to fit your individual needs.

Addiction Resources For American Communities – Addiction is a complex and serious issue that affects all types of communities in the United States. While anyone can develop substance use disorder (SUD), there are specific communities that are more susceptible than others. Certain cases require specialized care and treatment.

Contingency Management Helps Veterans Stay Drug-Free – A college degree helps active military members and veterans prepare for and transition to civilian life. It's vital that active-duty military members and veterans are able to find a school that can accommodate their needs and is compatible with their long-term career goals. In an effort to support military members in their pursuit of quality college education, Intelligence.com created a guide to the best military-friendly colleges.

Veterans' Dental Health – This article provides useful information on a variety of dental health issues.

Mental health And Sleep – The term mental health describes emotional, cognitive, and social well-being. Mental health is important at every stage of life, from childhood and adolescence through adulthood. Mental health affects how we feel, how we think and behave. Our psychological condition determines how we handle stress, relate to others, and make decisions.

Tunnels.to.Towers – Are you a Veteran with a severe service-connected disability that affects your mobility? Do you know someone who is? If you answered "Yes" to either question, then you or someone you know may be eligible for the participation in the Foundation's Smart Home Program. The Stephen Siller Tunnel to Towers Foundation builds mortgage-free smart homes for our most catastrophically injured service members. Each home is custom designed to address the unique needs of each individual. Our smart homes host a myriad of features such as automatic doors and lighting, wider halls and doorways, special showers to accommodate wheelchairs, automatic door openers, cabinets, counters, and stove tops that can be raised and lowered, back-up generators, and central heating and air conditioning systems that can be controlled by tablets. These homes enable our most severely injured heroes' live better, more independent lives.
War Zone Wear is a proud monthly contributor to Tunnels.to.Towers.

NoVetAlone.org – No Vet Alone is a national peer support network to empower resilience for America's Finest. Our network helps create communities that provide resources and tools to help our nation's heroes improve their lives. #FindHopeIncrypto#Establish the Resilience Reserve Fund in April 2019 to Create a unique and highly innovative protocol with targeted and personalized mental health treatments and suicide prevention by combining peer support, technology, functional medicine, and community engagement. We train health care providers to more effective outcomes. Our nation-wide network of community programs provides a vital lifeline for those who serve our country.

Sneakers For Soldiers – Athletic shoes, a critical item for deployed soldiers, are not supplied by the military. In Afghanistan, the extreme temperatures, harsh environment, rugged terrain, and daily exercise wreak havoc on soldiers' athletic shoes and frequently creates the need for a new pair. The benefits of daily exercise are numerous in managing stress levels and in staying strong, but exercising in worn out shoes is just as bad as exercising in the wrong shoe. It increases the chance of injury to joints which can cause injuries. Studies have also shown that time spent out of boots, in proper fitting athletic shoes is critical to the health of our soldiers' feet. Recognizing this need, Sneakers for Soldiers was born to collect athletic shoes and provide support for our troops in a practical way by replacing their worn-out athletic shoes. With the support of individuals and organizations from around the country, we are able to purchase high quality sneakers at a discounted price and send them to men and women deployed in Afghanistan. The uniqueness of the program is that Sneakers for Soldiers has devised a way for each soldier to choose a sturdy athletic shoe that best fits their feet. Sneakers for Soldiers – because all soldiers' feet deserve to be comfortable! Is SneakersForSoldiers.org.

Free Grants for Veterans – Find Free grants for veterans in all 50 states and major cities. This website provides comprehensive details on grants for veterans. Mesotheliomaveterans.org Veterans of the U.S. Navy have the highest risk of asbestos exposure. The Navy used asbestos extensively in their ships, and the material could be found in boiler rooms, engine rooms, pipe lagging, valves, pumps, gaskets, seals, deck flooring, bulkheads, insulation, and even in berthing. Asbestos was relatively cheap and fire-resistant, so it was used extensively to fireproof the Navy's infrastructure.

Mesothelioma.and.Veterans One-third of all mesothelioma patients are veterans, and approximately 6,000 veterans afflicted with this asbestos-caused cancer died between 1999 and 2005 alone. The reason this cancer targets so many veterans is because of the prevalence of asbestos use in the military in the past. Part of Mesothelioma Guide's mission is to spread awareness to veterans and their families. The Mesothelioma Guide website offers free information, resources and support for patients and families.
